CITY NEWS.

To-night, "Lucille." At Grand Opera House. Edmund Lacey, of Danvers, was in town to-day. Twenty-five persons registered yesterday at the Grand-Brainard. Charles Campbell received a car load of apples from Michigan yesterday. Mrs. Cynthia Stewart returned last evening from a visit with friends at Canton. John Baillie left yesterday for Hamilton in the crew of the Buckeye Engine Co. John Carter and Charles Werner, of Hanover township, were in the city to-day. Miss Edna Takott, of Lanesville, Pa., is the guest of C. D. Hole and wife, of East Fifth street. The answer to Dick's puzzle No. 1 will be published to-morrow, and the answer to No. 2 on Monday. Frank Lawrence, who has been confined to the house for the past week by an attack of quincy, is again able for duty. Robert Miller and wife, formerly of this city, but who have been in Kansas City for nearly two years, have removed to Chicago. A telegram has been received by friends of Granville Watson announcing the safe arrival of himself and wife at Portland, Oregon. Miss Mary Miller, of Pittsburg, who has been visiting Herman Litty and family, of Woodland avenue, for a few days, returned home this morning. In our notice yesterday of the family left by the late Benjamin Wright, we omitted the name of one daughter, Mrs. John Rank, who resides in Canton. The funeral of the late Benjamin Wright, which will take place on Sunday, will be conducted by the Odd Fellows, of which order Mr. Wright was a member. Fred W. Weidmeyer, the popular clerk at Hawkins' drug store, was married last evening to a daughter of Jerome F. Strambaugh, a prominent business man of Leontonia. Wm. DeLong, of Mansfield, stopped over last night in the city on his return from New York, to visit his brother-in-law, George M. Thomas, and left for Mansfield this morning. The most dejected, starved looking dog imaginable was perambulating on Broadway last evening. It resembled the rooster used as a trade-mark by Aultman & Taylor, the thrasher manufacturers. Rev. C. M. Oliphant, of Niles, who has been preaching at the Disciple church for a couple of nights, will probably supply the pulpit after Rev. Craublet shall have retired to go to his appointment at Onaba, Neb. Alice Meitzer, wife of Harvey Meitzer, died last evening at her home at No. 15 Race street, aged 23 years and 7 months. The funeral will take place from the late residence to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Meitzer was a member of the Disciple church. Clarence Hewitt, son of S. J. Hewitt, accidentally got his hand into the cog wheel of a feed cutter which he was operating at McCouner's livery stable last evening, and the index finger of the right hand was so badly mangled that it was necessary to have it amputated at the second joint, which was done by Drs. Cook and Thompson. The middle finger was also lacerated, but it is thought can be saved. Marshal Johnson left for New Lisbon at ten o'clock this forenoon in a carriage with the three young burglars—Linkenskie, Ware and Tillie—who robbed the store of Carr & Tescher and W. G. Fawcett. The boys are a tough looking crowd, and from appearances are almost strangers to soap and water. As the carriage left town they were making an effort to light their pipes, their movements being greatly impeded by the handcuffs which they wore. The Gibney, Gordon & Gibney Comedy Company were well patronized again last night at the Grand Opera House in their presentation of the society drama, "Divorce." Miss Gibney, in the character of Florence Grantley, is simply immense. Her emotions in the sad scene at the separation from her husband were so real as to bring tears to the eyes of many of the large audience; but of course few would be willing to acknowledge the fact to-day. Miss Gibney as Blanche Sterling, the disarming element in the Brantley household, presented the bold adventureship of Miss Williams and her lover, M. T. Moore, brought down the house by their funny sayings and actions. Everybody who has seen and heard George Somers pronounce him among the best comedians that has ever visited our city. The setting of Mr. Gibney and Frank E. Baker, in their different roles, was as on all previous occasions, of such a high order as to elicit the approval and admiration of the audience, and we could not if we desired advance a criticism. The company is a strong one and is daily growing in popularity with our people. To-night the powerful melodrama, "Lucille," will be presented.

Read wants to-day. Council meeting to-night. A. J. Reynolds, of Alliance, was in the city last evening. Joseph Masters, of Winona, was in the city on business to-day. Dr. Kintner made a professional trip today to Deloit and North Denton. The Senior O. U. A. M. will hold a regular meeting this evening at K. of P. hall. Mr. and Mrs. Ph. Wirsching, of Etta street, are the happy possessors of a new baby boy. Married, last evening by J. D. Fountain, Esq., Henry L. Metzgar to Mary M. Shepard, both of this city. Misses Lizzie and Laura Kittland, of Rose street, will entertain a number of their friends this evening. Mrs. Clementine Freed and daughters, Blanche and Florence, are guests of A. W. Taylor and wife of Garfield avenue. Dr. Savory, of Philadelphia, arrived in town this morning and went to Winona to visit the families of Finley Hutton and J. Penrose. One of Street Commissioner Grimes' large gray horses was taken with congestive chills last evening and is very sick. It is doubtful whether it will live. W. G. Spragne, formerly of the Western Union telegraph office, this city, and whose family still reside here, is now telegraph operator in the freight office at Alliance. Four horses, a cow and a lot of harness taken on an attachment as the property of Jesse Lloyd, were sold at public auction on Broadway by Constable Reed this afternoon. A shooting affray occurred at Kensington last evening. Paddy Flood shot George Grim in the hip, inflicting a dangerous wound. Domestic trouble is said to be the cause. It is said that a row occurred at the Buckeye works this forenoon between some of the officials of the company, in which cases, brick-bats and cuss words were used precipitously. A patent fire extinguisher exploded while being charged at the office of the mail mill this forenoon, throwing the contents over those engaged in the work, but fortunately injuring no one. Frank McKee returned last evening from Brooklyn, N. Y. These frequent visits of Frank's to the city of churches has aroused a suspicion that an attraction of more than ordinary interest exists. We await developments. Emmanuel Hawley and wife, of Louisville, Ky., who have been visiting friends in this vicinity will return home on Monday. They are at present the guests of Mrs. Hawley's sister, Mrs. W. J. Street, of Ellsworth street. A fair-sized audience greeted the Little Trixie Company at Concert Hall last evening. The acting by all the members of the company is said to have been excellent, there being no weak characters in the cast. The colored comedian of the company is away above par. The Stratton Carriage Co. have received within a few days orders for three combination carriages to be shipped to different points in North Carolina, one to Milwaukee, Wis.; four to Chicago; three to points in Pennsylvania and one to Newmarket, W. Va. The proprietors report the outlook for the coming season's trade as unusually good. J. K. Stitt, who has charge of the telephone lines in this district, will begin to-morrow to string the wires to Winona, and by Monday evening this city will be connected by telephony with that enterprising village. Next week Mr. Stitt will put in instruments at Luon, East Palestine and New Waterford, to which places the wires are already up. A boy entered a feed store in the city today and asked for a basket of corn with which to celebrate Hallow E'en. The proprietor, with commendable good sense, refused point blank to sell it, and gave the lad a lecture on the evils of scaring lone women, littering up lawns and destroying property, that should at least set the youth to thinking. The four-foot crossing, which is being put down on Main street at the postoffice is the only one of the kind in the city, and in some respects an experiment. The crossings are usually made of two stones about 18 inches in width, laid a short distance apart and the space filled in with cobble stone, and owing to extra amount of dressing required, cost fully as much as a crossing of solid stone four feet wide. Officer Rosten returned from Beaver Falls last evening with Charles Tallis in charge. The young man was connected with the recent robbery of Carr & Tescher's hardware store. He was working in a nail mill in Beaver Falls, and upon being placed under arrest denied all knowledge of the affair, but later acknowledged his guilt, produced one of the stolen revolvers and told the officer where he had disposed of another, which was also recovered. One more revolver was also secured last evening. It had been given to a boy by the name of Boone by Ware and Linkenskie, the young men arrested yesterday. This makes nine revolvers recovered, and there are yet three revolvers and one thief at large. The latter is known by the police and will probably be gathered in within a short time.
